• Call for nominations	• Deadline for nominations/ dossier submissions	• Committee recommendation due to President Neufeldt	• Award announcement	• All People's Luncheon and Award Recognition

NOMINATION PROCESS

Students may be nominated by any campus community member, or they may opt to self-nominate.

Nomination Dossiers

Nomination dossiers must include the following, and in this order:

- Cover Page: Prepared by the student nominee and should include the following:
 - The student's full name (with preferred pronouns and/or pronunciation)
 - Major
 - Student's ID number
 - CSUSM email address
 - Student's phone number
- Personal Statement: Prepared by the student nominee (no length requirement or limit): Personal statement regarding the significance of personal involvement in campus diversity and inclusion initiatives.
- Campus Involvement Resume: Prepared by the student nominee (no length requirement or limit): Campus involvement resume detailing campus activities and accomplishments that contribute to diversity and inclusion at CSUSM as described in the selection criteria section below.
- Faculty/Staff Recommendation: Recommendation from faculty or staff citing contributions made to diversity and inclusion at CSUSM (no length requirement or limit).

All nominations must address criteria number 1 below. Although not required, nominations should also address criteria numbers 2-4. Awards will be based on a nominee's efforts and activities as a student at CSUSM.

SELECTION CRITERIA

1. CSUSM Goals – How has the nominee demonstrated significant achievement in advancing the University's goals in the areas of diversity, educational equity, inclusive excellence, and/or social justice?
2. Leadership – How has the nominee demonstrated superior leadership and commitment to the enhancement, development, and sustainability of diversity, inclusive excellence, educational equity, and/or social justice?
3. Creativity – How has the nominee advanced existing diversity initiatives in unique and creative ways?
4. Impact – Has the nominee been successful in advancing the University's goals in the area of diversity? What has been the impact or results of their efforts?

SELECTION PROCESS

The Selection Committee is comprised of the following members:

- The Chief Diversity Officer or delegated administrator
- The Dean of Students
- One Diversity Faculty Associate chosen by the Office of Inclusive Excellence
- A recipient of a past President's Inclusive Excellence Award
- One student representative from ASI

The Selection Committee members will review nominations and may conduct interviews to identify finalists for the award. The Selection Committee shall then recommend a student finalist to the President, providing their strengths and weaknesses. The President will make the final decision based on the Selection Committee's recommendations.

An announcement to the campus community will be sent after the President has selected the recipient of the award. The honoree will receive a plaque and be recognized at the annual All People's Luncheon.
