

THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR

BAKERSFIELD

February 2017

CHANNEL ISLANDS

Open letter to the California State University San Marcos community:

CHICO

The CSU Board of Trustees has a policy requiring its presidents to be reviewed every three years. It is now time for the review of Dr. Karen S. Haynes, president of California State University San Marcos community.

DOMINGUEZ HILLS

This process is intended to provide feedback to the Board of Trustees and the Chancellor about the leadership of President Haynes and the current state of affairs at California State University San Marcos. It should also provide information that will further the university's progress and assist President Haynes in the leadership of CSU San Marcos.

EAST BAY

FRESNO

FULLERTON

As is the policy of the board, a number of officers of the university and the chairs of its major constituencies, the Academic Senate, the Alumni Association, the Associated Students, and the University Advisory Board are being contacted for their comments with respect to specific criteria, which are cited below. A sampling of faculty, administrators/managers, staff, and community is also being invited to submit individual comments.

HUMBOLDT

LONG BEACH

It is CSU policy to inform the university community of the review and to allow anyone not selected on an ex-officio or random basis to submit comments that respond to the specific criteria. The criteria are posted at www.calstate.edu/datastore/PresCriteria.shtml on the CSU website. Those wishing to submit confidential letters should keep in mind that every effort should be made to address the criteria and that neither unsigned letters nor petitions will be accepted. Please submit letters or emails no later than March 27, 2017, addressed as follows:
