SESSION I

The State of Higher Education & Student Affairs

An overview of the current state of higher education in America and the environmental factors that will impact the field in the near future. A deeper dive into how those elements will impact the field of Student Affairs will be provided as a catalyst to small group discussion about how our division will address those impacts. This will help prepare our division and our staff to respond to our changing environment to more effectively support st

SESSION II

Doing Less with Less

Our evolving demands on increasingly limited resources, both fiscal and personnel, means that student affairs professionals need to make critical decisions about prioritizing efforts to maximize their impact in supporting our students' success. This session will provide insights into how individuals and teams can reevaluate their work to allocate their time and efforts more effectively to ensure sustainable workloads that achieve our collective mission to enhance student success.

Ernesto Mejia

Vice President, CoolSpeak

SESSION III

Reflect, Connect and Reaffirm: A Day in Higher Education

This interactive session will recap the day's learning and reinforce our division's shared mission. Participants will engage in icebreakers to get to know one another better and find common ground. Additionally, activities will encourage reflection on personal success stories and reaffirm commitment to making a difference in higher education.
